

June 4th Board Meeting of the Northwest Washington Woodturners Meeting Minutes

Called to order at 6:30 pm by vice president Mark Straight

Dave Blair will reserve 10 camping spaces for Hills to Mills . He will bring maple dowels to the next regular meeting for top blanks.

A display of turned items is permitted at Bellingham top turning on Aug. 2nd, an explanation label is required. Top turners will bring the display and pass out brochures. Dave will also contact the Coupeville Art Faire committee to see if we can demo there.

Melanie: By laws are still being worked on; she has contacted the Small Business Administration and will end up as some sort of corporation and we may be a non-profit. Scott is ordering A.V. items for the club and is still within budget.

Ron Means is still working on the welcome brochure for new members. It may be on the web site or sent to new members as an e-mail.

Shirley Butters is authorized to purchase plates, napkins, knives, forks and spoons for club events after they were somehow lost.

Jerry Holms will bring his lathe to Anacortes Art Festival Aug.2nd and 3rd

Dennis Shinn is resigning as editor of the newsletter as soon as a replacement is found but will continue to do the gallery photos at meetings. There will be a new department in the newsletter about what is happening (demos etc) at other clubs. He will design a generic business card for the club so that members can sign it and provide an e-mail contact to prospective members. Dennis spoke to the printer and 1000 brochures will be ready for Hills to Mills an July 11th.

Live centers are still on order.

Greg Anderson is our new librarian.

November Silent Auction? or a live auction? Should we invite Bruce Campbell to be the auctioneer? and should we offer him gas money to come here?

Raffle tickets: someone needs to sell them at Hills to Mills and also at meetings; Julian was proposed. Could someone take them to the woodworkers meetings?

August 2nd and 3rd. Anacortes Arts Festival. We are at the working artists area, 2nd and railroad and can display, sell and take orders. They will pay us $200.for the weekend.Jerry will bring his lathe and we will set up a Jet Mini also. Jerry and Ron Means will set up the booth 7-8 am

Volunteers to attend the booth and turn
